Lay Carmelites A Vocation

St. John the Baptist Lay Carmelite Community

What are Lay Carmelites?

The Lay Carmelite Order of the Blessed Virgin Mary is an association of laypersons. Its members, responding to a special call of God, freely and deliberately commit themselves "to live in the followings of Jesus Christ" according to the charism, traditions, and spirit of Carmel under the authority of the Prior General of the Carmelite Order.

Carmel is not an organization but a Christian community committed to leading an evangelical life (poverty, obedience, and chastity). The call to Carmel is a vocation . . . rooted in careful discernment . . . and requires careful maintenance as the grace of a vocation implies.

The challenge of Carmel is to see God's presence in prayer while living an active, busy life in the midst of the world.

Admission Requirements

A candidate must be a Catholic in good standing who feels called by God to live more deeply his or her baptismal vocation as a member of the Carmelite Family. This entails a deeper formation in Christian values according to Carmelite spirituality and its three charisms of prayer, community, and service.

Candidates for Reception will apply for membership through the local Council (St. John the Baptist Community). Candidates are received into the Order after a formal introductory program lasting a minimum of 12 months. They may then be received with the approval of the local Community Council.

Candidates must be:

- ❖ At least 18 years old
- ❖ Free from an untreatable mental disorder
- ❖ If married, married within the Church

Candidates must not be:

- ❖ A member of another Order's lay or secular community
- ❖ An indicted felon facing trial or sentencing

The Formation Process

Inquiry Sessions: Find out what a Lay Carmelite vocation is about (3 or more months)

Phase I: Preparation for Reception (minimum of 12 months up to 2 years, if necessary)

Phase II: Preparation for Temporary Promises (2 to 3 years)

Phase III: Preparation for Final Promises (minimum of 3 years)

Phase IV: Ongoing Formation (part of the community meetings)
